THE END OF THE CHAPTER.

Haultain's Executive Is Restored to Power—The Cayley Party Claimed Representation—The Vote Stood 11 to 41.

REGINA, Dec. 13.—An executive committee consisting of Messrs. Haultain, (Macleod) Tweed, (Medicine Hat) Neff, (Moosemin) and Mitchell, (Mitchell) were elected today. Clinkskill (Battleford) moved in amendment that Cayley party should have two members on the executive. Betts (Cumberland) seconded.

Haultain and others refused to consider question from party standpoint. Price, as representative of the Catholics, denied any arrangement existed between himself and rest of Cayley party on school question but felt in honor bound to stand by those who stood by him on that question. The amendment was defeated.

Yea.	Nay.
McKay	Dill
Myers	Insinger
Brett	Pope
Morat	Mitchell
Boucher	Haultain
Prince	Tweed
Cayley	Neff
Farndick	Oliver
Jelly	Wilkins
Clinkskill	Lincham
	Campbell
	Sutherland
	McGavin

By this vote it will be seen that Lineham, previously one of Cayley's supporters has voted with the Haultain party.

REGINA, Dec. 15.—Haultain is to have an interview with the lieutenant governor to-day to discuss the memorandum from the Minister of Justice. It is expected that the proceedings of the Assembly will proceed without any further hitch and that the session will be productive of good results.

C. P. R. Land Sales

TORONTO, Dec. 8.—From January 1 to November 30, 1891, the Canadian Pacific sold 84,253 acres of land in the North West, receiving for the same $348,771, and that for the like period of the present year the sales reached 378,537 acres valued at no less a sum than $1,320,334 or an increase over the proceeds of the sales of 1891 of $971,563. These astounding figures however do not embrace all that has been done in the company's land department during the past season. Apart from the above sales which were made to settlers the proceeds of land sales for town sites up to the end of November reach $403,603, bringing the total amount for the past eleven months up to $1,723,937. The correspondent adds that he learns that the tremendously heavy month of November will be almost duplicated by the sales for December.

Our Immigration.

TORONTO, Dec. 8. Mayor Lucas of Calgary, appointed by the legislative assembly of the North-West to superintend arrangements for a vigorous emigration campaign in eastern Canada, has opened an immigration office here. The first party of farmers delegated from various districts in Assiniboia, Alberta and Saskatchewan being sent out by the Assembly, arrived last night, and will disperse to their old homes and begin work at once.

Fashionable Wedding at Lethbridge.

Mr. Norman MacLeod, manager of the H. B. Co. at Lethbridge, and Miss Sherlock, formerly of Moose Jaw, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in Lethbridge on the 14th inst. The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents.

A Successful Hunt.

Mr. George E. Holdsworth, our popular Car Inspector, who is one of Moose Jaw's crack shots returned from his hunting expedition in the vicinity of Broadview. Mr. Holdsworth shot two fine black-tailed deer, and a barrel or prairie chickens.

Mr. Holdsworth stopped with a farmer named David Wilders, where he says he was treated right royally. On the first day he saw a tremendous buck but did not get a shot at him. On the second day he got after the prairie chickens and was very successful as the chickens were very numerous. Wednesday and Thursday, being stormy, Mr. Holdsworth devoted to visiting the farmers. On Friday he had an exciting chase after three large deer, but the snow being deep he discontinued the chase and shot another bag of prairie chickens. On Saturday morning he secured a fine large doe and fawn. After dinner he took a team and brought them to Mr. Wilders. Mr. Holdsworth returned to Moose Jaw on Monday.

His many friends in town were not forgotten, as the game was generously distributed.

Mr. Taylor, a night cur of Mr. Wilders, was seen with a team of horses in the water running through the slush. Mr. Holdsworth says he was successful. While in B.V. Mr. Holdsworth was the guest of Mr. Peter Robinson, the general proprietor of the hotel there.

Church Before Cash.

OTAWA, Ontario, Dec. 15.—A religious society for erecting a church, among thoughtful and unselfish laymen that the churchmen invariably obey a call which gives promise of an increased stipend. An occasional incident occurs however to put the church in a slightly degree of discomfort in this selfish world. Such an incident was the refusal by Rev. Dr. Knowles of this city, on Tuesday last of an invitation to go to Halifax, where he would have a larger church, a larger congregation and a handsome increase of salary beyond what he receives here. This is only one instance directly in view of a species of self-sacrifice which is common enough among the clergy, but is seldom noted. We are much more prone, in the excess of our charity to mark and comment upon examples of the other kind.

Fire at the Galt Mines.

LETHBRIDGE, Dec. 12.—Last evening some boys discovered fire in what is known here as the "stone drift" of the Galt mines. It occurred in a tool house adjacent to the entrance and spread rapidly to the timbering of the mine. A good supply of water from the company's pumping engines soon brought the fire under control, and before much damage was done. A car standing near the mouth of the drift, and which fortunately contained stone instead of coal was completely destroyed. The company is to be congratulated on its escape at this, its harvest season. Every pound of coal now taken out is readily disposed of.

Calgary Proposed Enterprise Stalled.

CALGARY, Dec. 13.—The public meeting called last night to discuss applications for charters from the Dominion Government elicited but little of interest, other than the opinion which prevailed that the town should retain full power to deal with the street railway question. It is understood that the applicants for a local irrigation charter will explain their propositions fully through the press.

DONALD A. BENEDICT.

A Popular Brakeman no Longer "One of the Boys."

Marriages seem to be the order of the day in Moose Jaw. Hardly a week rolls over our heads but some young couple hunt for trouble in this way. It is our pleasant duty this week to chronicle the wedding of Mr. Donald Morrison of the C.P.R. service, to Miss Minnie Kidd of Moose Jaw.

The marriage ceremony was performed at the Presbyterian Manse by the Rev. W. L. Clay. The bride, who was quietly and tastefully dressed, was assisted by Miss Hattie Hill, while the groom was supported by Mr. James Fitzpatrick.

After the ceremony the happy couple repaired to their new home on River street, where a number of their many friends gathered to wish them prosperity.

The bride was the recipient of the following presents:

Silver Cake Dish, Mr. Fred Garmham; Fruit Basket, Mr. J. Fitzpatrick; Handsome Ornate Clock, R. Martin and J. McCauley; Marmalade Dish, Mr. E. Jackson; Pickle Ornate, Mr. B. L. Slater; Pepper and Salt Ornate; Mr. J. Blackburn; Pickle Dish, Miss McConnell and Miss Hill; Fruit Dish, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown; Photo Album, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Carter; Salt Cope and Soapbox, Mr. T. W. Robinson.

Mr. Morrison is one of the best trainmen on the C.P.R. and is highly respected by the officials of the road. He is extremely popular among his brethren of the rail.

A remarkable feature of this event was the conduct of the small boys of Moose Jaw. Contrary to their usual method of procedure in such occasions they were conspicuous by their absence. It is rumored around town today, however, that Dan made it alright with them.

THE TIMES extends its congratulations to the newly married pair and wishes them life-long joy and prosperity.

A Creamery for Moose Jaw.

The meeting for starting a creamery in Moose Jaw was held according to advertisement, in the Town Hall, on Wednesday last.

Mr. Thorburn, President of the Dairyman's association in the chair. There was a fair but not large attendance. Earnest attention was given to all that was said. There was entire unanimity as to the desirability of starting a creamery but considerable difference of opinion as to the best method to pursue. After discussion it was resolved to start a Creamery on the co-operation plan or system.

It is a limited Joint Stock Co., entitled The Moose Jaw Creamery Association—Capital Stock $2000, in two hundred shares of $10 each.—Ten shares to be the maximum number of shares to be held by any one person. A Provisional Board of Directors was appointed who are to meet in the Town Clerk's office to-morrow, at 14 o'clock to get shares, cover, etc. That there were difficulties to encounter and overcome was felt by several, if not by all, but if united effort was made success would crown our efforts and the incoming season would see a creamery in full operation. It was felt that the thanks of the community was due Mr. Thorburn for the interest he is taking in the matter, and to the Town Council for giving the use of the Town Hall well warmed up for the occasion.

Services of the Rev. J. W. Bartlett.

Rev. J. W. Bartlett, rector of the Church of England at Regina, will preach at both morning and evening services at the opening of the Church of St. John the Baptist on Sunday next.

THE NORTH-WEST ASSEMBLY.

A cloud no bigger than a man's hand is hovering over the Assembly at Regina. This country is passing through an important crisis in its history. The third session within a year is now meeting and the Assembly has to contend with an enormous difficulty.

Apparently the thought present to the minds of the powers that be is that it is the easiest, most innocent and safest operation one can imagine to make the vast North-West Territories a field for legislative experiment. The idea seems prevalent that the people of the North-West can be treated like spoiled children. The Assembly was granted what was popularly supposed to be an extension of powers. Two sessions of the House were held under the new order of things. There was no word of the executive "ceasing to exist after the prorogation of the House." But now the bits of colored glass in the kaleidoscope take on surprisingly different shapes and combinations!

The House is informed that the Executive have no powers that outlive the session. Why, we ask, has a community such as the North-West a constitution that can be changed at a moment's notice. Our funds have been transferred from the credit of the Assembly to that of the Interior Department, and we have no more control over them than we had during the days of "one man power."

To what standard must we attain before we have powers equal to those of the provinces? And how shall we know when we have attained to it? Let the Dominion Government rise and explain.

Meanwhile, what are the people of the Territories going to do about it. Are we to sit passively with folded arms and see our dearest rights taken from us. How long would the people of Manitoba or of Ontario tolerate such actions?

A DAILY MAIL.

Ever since the C. P. R. inaugurated the local train between Winnipeg and the coast, the public has been expecting that postal cars would be placed on these trains. So far, however, the post office department, has done nothing more than to send a closed mail to Brandon and Vancouver and some intermediate points.

The cost of placing postal cars on these trains would be, comparatively speaking, trifling. It would make no difference in the salaries of the mail agents, and would increase their mileage only slightly. It would do away with the "long run" every week which does exasperate a clerk's spending four days away from home. True the expense of hauling the postal cars will be considerable. But the question is not expense. The people of the Territories have arrived at that stage when they consider themselves justly entitled to every advantage to be derived from the postal institution.

The boon to business men would far outweigh the additional cost. English, American and Western Ontario mail would not lie over one day in Winnipeg, and the advantage in having daily connection between local points is inestimable.

A WORTHY PATRIOT.

The Winnipeg Free Press of a recent date comments upon Prof. Goldwin Smith's letter to Mr. Gladstone on Irish coercion, in which he excuses the warmth of his statements by saying that "allowance must be made for the feelings of an Englishman who saw wrong done, as he thought to the character of the country of the country, by one to whom we have a right to look to as the chief guardian of her honor."

After referring to the acceptance by Mr. Goldwin Smith of the honorary presidency of an annexation association, and his writings and speeches on the subject of political union with the neighboring republic the article concludes in these words:

He has contended that our connection with Great Britain is a drag on our energies and an impediment to our development. He has abused both political parties in the country, declared our politics to be parish and corrupt, and predicted national disaster if we proclaimed our independence and national stagnation if we remained as we are. The only hope for us was to break off from the Empire, cease to be British and become American. This is the Englishman who is so jealous of the honor of his country that he ventures to reproach the greatest Englishman of the century for neglecting to explain that the 130,000 men of whom he spoke were part British and part Irish. He is so extremely sensitive that he could not permit American readers to go away with the impression that this large force of men were actually employed, or stood ready to be employed, to coerce Ireland into a hateful union. But he is willing to give to those Americans half a continent that is now British. His proud English spirit resents the absence of a wholly immaterial distinction in a statement as to the composition of a certain armed force, through fear that American readers may get a wrong impression and be more confirmed than ever in their sympathy for Ireland and its cause; but for the greater glory of those Americans he is willing to make them a gift of Canada, and by so doing set in motion influences that would destroy the colonial empire of Great Britain and thus rob his own country of its greatest pride. This is scarcely the sort of Englishman to prate to others of patriotism and honor, and least of all to a man like Mr. Gladstone.

EDITORIAL AND GENERAL NOTES.

The date of the elections in the four constituencies of Montreal Centre, Sherbrook, West York and Brockville made necessary by the acceptance of office by the representatives of these constituencies, has been fixed for December 28th.

In connection with the North-West exhibit for the World's Fair, the commissioner, Mr. A. G. Thorburn, states that a very good collection of North-West fish will be prepared showing all the important food fishes found in the numerous lakes and rivers of that vast territory.

Commenting on the condition of stock in the North-West ranches the Medicine Hat Times says: "Stockmen without exception state that all kinds of stock are in prime condition to enter on even a severe winter, and as most ranches, profiting by the experience of the hard winter of '86-'87, have put up large quantities of hay, no trouble is anticipated. The abnormal mortality among cattle report a few weeks ago, was confined to a few ranches southeast of here. It has fortunately entirely disappeared and all kinds of stock are in the general healthful condition."

An article in a recent number of the Russian Gazette calls attention to the continued miserable condition of the Russian peasantry. It says that certain districts are threatened with famine. The rye and oats harvest is an utter failure. There is a complete dearth of fuel.

The following tit-bit appears in the Moosomin Spectator.

The "Courier" is dead; and the late "Journal" has gone to regions not, we trust, infernal: Who, then, the news will for the public cater? Why, don't you know?—the Phoenix-like Spectator.

The French Canadian papers are complaining that their race is being systematically neglected in the distribution of offices at Ottawa. Le Monde declares that while English officials suspended some time ago are being reinstated, the French speaking victims are being left out in the cold and that it is even proposed to fill their place with Britishers. The Canadian makes a similar complaint. The French Canadians, it says, have one-sixth of their own race in the reconstructed cabinet—three out of eighteen—still they form one-third of the population of the Dominion.

A scheme is on foot at Brandon which means not a little to the future of that place. It is the intention of some of the ratepayers to ask the council to take a level of that portion of the city traversed by the Assiniboine river, with the object of utilizing the water power. Dr. Spencer who is the moving spirit in the enterprise has suggested the feasibility of the scheme to several experts and they have all expressed favorable opinions. It is thought by building a 15 foot dyke across the Assiniboine, commencing where the river crosses 5th street and running north about half a mile that a lake would be formed one mile square and with a sufficient dept to give a water fall which it is expected would supply sufficient force to drive a dozen mill plants. It will be remembered that the land which it is intended to flood was covered with water in 1882, the steamers from Winnipeg passing easily over it.

No living man can tell how death feels, or whether the actual act of dissolution is accompanied by sensation or not. A man who, through disease or casualty, has lost consciousness—has become to all appearances dead—and is then resuscitated, can really tell us nothing about it, for he did not die. The machinery did not come to a complete standstill—the life force did not leave the body. It may be that the poet has dipped deeper than the physician into the awful mystery of death. It may be that he has described terrors not visible to the eyes of the medical man, who interests himself only in the condition of the animal mechanism.

Says a writer on this subject, "I have stood by the deathbed of a man who told me they were going to hell; and saw them pass peacefully to their long sleep. I have looked at their dead faces a few minutes later and saw thereon a look of fear, of horror, that was not visible when the heart gave its last faint throb and then stood still. I have heard others tell me almost with their last breath that they were going to heaven. They passed away with wan, weary faces that were pitiful to contemplate, but before they became rigid a smile sweet as an angel's dream overspread the pallid features. The deep lines of suffering faded out, and the aged look almost youthful, the weary and worn became radiant." "What causes this change, which every physician has noticed? When does death occur? We say when the animal machinery stops, when the breath and pulse cease. That is what the doctor calls death, but it may not really be death after all. The spirit may not leave the body, may not take its departure from earth with the last breath, the last faint heart-beat. It may cling for some moments to its shattered tenement before it takes flight, before it faces those terrors or enters into those transcendent glories which the poet has painted. The death of the body, with which doctors only deal, may be but the prelude to a more important act, the departure of the spirit. Silence has gone far, but it has not yet lifted the veil of mystery which the Almighty has hung over the couch of death."

The River of Life.

Down the swathy mountain sides,
With joyous leap exulting,
The tiny streamlet swiftly glides,
Its conscious murmur cheering,
So pass our childhood hours away,
The merry hours of playtime,
The fairy dreams of evenside,
The happy hours of daytime.

But like our fuller, nobler years
The stream is wider growing
Its steady course admits no pause,
On, on, forever going,
So pass our days of sober thoughts
And hours of calm devotion,
Till down the cataclysm of Death,
We plunge into the Ocean.

GENERAL NOTES.

The estimated United States revenue for the current year is $455,000,000 and the appropriations about $442,000,000.

Sir Wm. Dawson, principal of McGill University, who has gone to the Southern States to recuperate after his recent illness, has issued an address to the students of the University urging them to be loyal to their Queen and their country.

The figures just made public by the United States census report show that in 1890 there were living in the United States 980,941 persons born in British North America. In 1880 the number was 717,157, and in 1870 the number was 393,464. From 1870 to 1880, it says, the increase was at the rate of 45.3 per cent.; from 1880 to 1890 it was at the rate of 36.7 per cent.

General Manager Shaugheeny, of the C. P. R., referring to the possibility of trouble with their men during the World's Fair, had concluded three years contracts with them; has stated that the fair had never been thought of in connection with the wages of employees. A three year arrangement with the drivers on the section of the road had recently been made, however, and this was probably the basis of the statement.

Mrs. Annie Deane, the former associate of Charles Bradlaugh, who since the death of Madame Blavatsky believes the mantle of this great inspiration has descended on her shoulders, is confident that the fairest field for the eastern doctrine of mysticism will be found in the western states—a strange conclusion, surely, in a land where the men are pre-eminently practical and the women for the most part too well educated and too much imbued with sober sense to be caught by the attractions of esoteric Buddhism, flashily seductive to the weak and listless mind.

London Advertiser: The average expenditure, per man, on the letter carriers of the United States is $326.27 a year. The United States government, taking note of the responsibility of the position, of the fact that, rain or shine, the postman must be always on deck, pays its letter carriers liberally. In Canada, the letter carrier has to suffer in order that men at headquarters who do little or nothing for their salaries, may draw big incomes. Mr. Hyman, M.P., called attention to this inequality in the remedied.

The following is a partial estimate of Jay Gould's wealth:

	Par value	Worth about
Western Union	$22,000,000	$19,000,000
Manhattan Elevator	10,000,000	13,000,000
Missouri Pacific stock	10,000,000	8,500,000
Missouri Pacific junior bonds	12,000,000	9,000,000
Other bonds	30,000,000	30,000,000
Total	$84,000,000	$77,100,000

Of course, the amount varies greatly in different calculations. Mr. Gould is said to have generally had $5,000,000 cash on hand for the demands of the moment.

The Montreal Witness which is to move into its own building next spring, will be by far the best equipped newspaper in a mechanical point of view in Canada. Its immense Hoe quadruple machine will be capable of turning out 60,000 eight-page or 30,000 twelve or sixteen-page papers an hour, printed complete on both sides, cut, pasted, and counted in piles of fifty. This will be one third faster than any other press in Canada. In addition its matter will be set on the Mergenthaler Linotype, which gives a new, clean face of type every issue, and its form will be compact and beautiful. The Witness, although old and reliable, is up to the front in respect of enterprise, and its readers expect and are not satisfied with anything but the best. The price of the Daily Witness is three dollars a year, of the Weekly Witness one dollar, and of the Northern Messenger, published from the same house, is thirty cents. Agents wanted in every town, village and P.O. Specimen copies will be sent free to any of our readers, on application to the publishers, JOHN DODGALL & SONS, Montreal.

The initial number of the Moose Jaw Spectator was found among our exchanges this week. The new weekly will be in the front rank of North-West papers. The make-up of the paper is excellent. From an editorial stand point the fact that so well-known a journalist as Mr. J. J. Young is in charge is sufficient. We quote from his leading article:

"About ourselves we will say nothing further. Concerning the immense country whose interests we from this time forth will endeavor faithfully to serve, we shall in due course have much to say. Every part of this faithful land—Assiniboia, Saskatchewan and Alberta—has its own particular attraction, and we trust that in our work of distributing the news and writing of our territorial endowments, we shall neither exaggerate our own advantages nor belittle those of our neighbors. When the greatness both in geographical extent and natural resources of these Western Territories is considered there is abundant scope for enthusiasm. With an educated and intelligent people working together for the common good and not exclusively for their own particular selves, the seeds of national greatness are being sown, and as the years come and go and Time sprinkles his salt on us all, we are advancing towards the time when the North-West Territories—the greater half of the Dominion—will, whether it remain a part of the Empire or become an independent nation or a part of some other, will stand high in all the noble qualities which constitute national greatness."

Derby Horses.

Morse, Dec. 6th, 1892.

To the Editor of THE TIMES,

Dear Sir,—

Can you tell me what horse won the Derby in 1861, and also the year and the horse that Lord Hastings lost so much money on.

Yours

A. R. T.

(1) The Derby of 1861 was won by "Kettledrum."

(2) Hermit in 1867. This was one of the most sensational of Derbies. Hermit did not do well in his three-year-old training, and Lord Hastings who was "going" for Vanban, made a dead set against him. The race was run on a very cold day. Hermit, having stopped in his work, owing to having burst a blood vessel, was driven to 60 to 1, after 5 to 1, had been taken. Fervently ridden he stole up just as Marked man, who had fairly hunted Vanban down appeared to have the race in hand. Hermit beat by a length. Lord Hastings lost over £100,000.

Our Gift to Every One of Our Readers—"A Yard of Pansies."

By special arrangement with the Publishers, we are enabled to make every one of our readers a present of one of these exquisite Oil Pictures, 36 inches long, a companion to "A Yard of Pansies," which all have seen and admired. This exquisite picture, "A Yard of Pansies," was painted by the same noted artist who did the "Roses." It is the same size, and pronounced by art critics to be far superior to the "Roses." The reproduction is equal in every respect to the original, which cost $300, and accompanying it are full directions for framing at home, at a cost of a few cents, thus forming a beautiful ornament for your parlor or a superb Christmas Gift worth at least $5. Send your name and address to the publisher, W. JENNINGS DODGSON, 15 East 14th St., New York, with three two-cent stamps to pay for the packing, mailing etc., and mention that you are a reader of the Moose Jaw Times and you will receive by return mail one of these valuable Works of Art.
